

Dimitrije Kostick

Front-End | Full-Stack & Blockchain Developer

Perfection is not gained by anyone, but I can make everything perfect!

I have rich experience for around 9 years in many different areas of software engineering.

I like to build amazing and awesome websites with my creative diverse knowledge.

I am really good at HTML, CSS, Frontend development with React, Backend development with Node, Website Design, and more using modern JavaScript, Python, PHP, Express, Django, Laravel CodeIgniter.

Over last 2 years, I have mainly focused on Blockchain technologies - developing Frontend with Web3/ether.js/Solidity, Token and Coin development.
